VOL. XVI. WASHINGTON, D. C., SATURDAY, MARCH 12, 1898. No. 40

REGISTER B. K. BRUCE, is seriously ill at his home, under the care of Dr. John R. Francis.

HON. GEO. W. MURRAY,
The most progressive negro representative in America.

COPYRIGHT 95

THEY SAY.

It is the honest man who succeeds.

The man who wins is a successful man.

There may be war with Cuba.

Kentucky will have a district office.

We will "Gain" one if no more.

Why should the negro fight for Cuba's independence.

All this this world is a stage.

It is the common man who wants his fellow man to be on a level with him.

Will the civil service be lifted from the Government Printing Office?

Public Printer Palmer is the right man in the right place.

Liars can tell the truth some times.

It is the true man who does honest deeds.

What is the world coming to.

Less talk about reorganization of the schools and more work.

If the United States and Cuba should go to war will the negro fight?

The industrial school should be enlarged.

The democratic negroes are organizing for 1900.

The world is full of sin.

Don't forget what your mother taught you.

Mr. C. C. Curtis has won the fight for the Freedmen's Hospital.

Senator Mason will investigate the South Carolina shooting.

We often think there are millions in schemes.

The District republicans are in the soup.

Some judges get too big for their positions.

The more you do for some people the less thanks you get.

It is better to be honest to your friends.

Liberal minds can only be found in leberal men.

The Emancipation parade will be a small affair.

Will insubordination in the schools continue?

Will the negro fight for Cuba's independence?

This is a white man's war.

There may be fight some day.

The colored trustees should do something at once.

Howard University should have a colored president.

We desert our best friends some times.

Changes in high places will take place soon.

Some people will be dishonest no matter what you may do for them.

Demas should be comfirmed.

The people of Louisiana want him.

Senator Hanna should see that Demas is confirmed.

The country is in favor of Demas.

The man who knows it all in his mind is a weak man.

How many men who are fighting Senator Demas are free from the lottery grab?

The politician may defeat Demas, but he will come out on top.

The new chief at the Freedmen's Hospital has been appointed.

Who will be the next senator from New York?

The politicians in North Carolina are traiding Recorder Cheatham for Congress.

He is becomining quite popular in the state.

The success of the republican in 1900 depends on circumstances.

Read The Bee now.

Will District republicans be recognized?

They are in the soup.

The preachers will organize a mutual protective association.

Caution!—There have recently been issued several cheap reprints of the 1847 edition of Webster's Unabridged Dictionary, an edition long since superannuated. These books are given various names,—"Webster's Unabridged," "The New Webster's Dictionary," "Webster's Big Dictionary," "Webster's Encyclopedic Dictionary," etc., etc.
Many announcements concerning them are very misleading, as the body of each, from A to Z is 44 years old, and printed from cheap plates made by photographing the old pages.

DEMAS THEIR CHOICE.

It is evident that Hon. Henry Demas is the choice of the republican party in New Orleans, notwithstanding the opposition of a few "lily white" and black republicans in the state who opposed his confirmation. We are very much surprised to learn that speaker Reed was a party to the opposition of Mr. Demas. It will not help him any among the people on whom Mr. Reed may some day be compelled to depend. We thought Mr. Reed was above petty jealousies. We thought him to be too great a man to join in with the "lily white" element in the state of Louisiana to defeat the nomination of a colored man.

Whether successful or defeated, Mr. Demas will hold the leadership of his state and if Mr. Reed has any political aspirations for the Presidency, he had better not look to the state of Louisiana or any other southern state in which the negro holds power. The people of Lousiana love Mr. Demas. They honor and respect him and as an evidence of what we say a review of the letters written by the leading men in the state will convince the most skeptical.

PURELY CIVIL SERVICE?

From the Evening Star.

The Secretary of the Interior this afternoon appointed Dr. Austin M. Curtis of Chicago surgeon-in-chief of Freedmen's Hospital, vice Dr. Daniel H. Williams, resigned.

This was purely a civil service appointment. Dr. Curtis being one of three names certified by the civil service commission. Dr. Curtis was born of colored parents January 15, 1866, at Raleigh, N. C. He graduated in 1891 from the Northwest Medical School of the Chicago Medical College, and served as interne and house physician in Providence Hospital from April 1891, to June, 1892 and was obstetrician at the same hospital from December, 1892, to December 1894, and since that time to present date has been surgeon of the same hospital. He was also attending surgeon of Cook County City Hospital from January, 1896 to 1897.

Dr. Curtis will assume his new duties April 1 next.

As will be seen by the news item from the Evening Star, Dr. A. M. Curtis of Chicago, Ill., has been appointed to succeed Dr. D. H. Williams, who resigned.

Dr. Williams' candidate was Dr. West. He stood the highest examination of any of the competitors, Dr. Curtis not excepted. If the Secretary of the Interior intended to confine himself to the eligible list according to the rating of the civil service examination, Dr. Shadd or Francis, from their hospital experience should be entitled to the appointment. Dr. Curtis, we are confident, did not stand a higher examination than young West, although we hold to the first opinion that Dr. West did not have the hospital experience, although he may be fully competent to run the institution. Dr. Curtis' appointment is a political one and nothing more, having been backed by Senators Mason and Collum. Dr. Curtis' wife made a lively campaign for him and it is to her, credit should be given for the success of her husband. She is a pleasant talker and a lady of intelligence. The Secretary of the Interior had but little respect for Dr. Purvis, who should have been appointed under rule 10, he having served with distinction in the army. Dr. Curtis appointment is purely political and nothing more and no other city would tolerate the imposition.

Washington is the dumping ground for state politicians.

NEGRO INDEPENDENCE.

From the Fort Worth, (Texas) Item.

The Washington BEE might have saved the ire of a hundred colored editors if it had said that the Colored American hasn,t the courage to express its honest opinions. That is all it meant in naming only four real courageous negro editors in this country.

Our esteemed contemporary has rightly put what The BEE meant. There are but a few negro editors who have the courage of their conviction. They are a class of pusillanimous cowards and toadies. We need editors who have nerve and courage.

OFFICER ASSAULTS A BOY.

The action of Trustee Terrell at the board meeting on last Tuesday evening requesting the Commissioners to investigate the case of William Gardner who was assaulted by an officer without any cause whatever is to be commended. It is hoped that the case will be thoroughly investigated and if the officer is found guilty be dismissed from the force.

If the editor of the Colored American would devote a little space to original matter and take out some of its stale plates, it would not have so much space to give The BEE. We still aver that at least two-thirds of the negro editors in this country are cowards and full of demogogism. They have no opinion of their own.

It looks like war.

Spain may fight but she can not win.

There seems to be more indication now than there has been for some time.

If the negroes could unite no doubt there would be something accomplished.

If you know how to fight, it will be an easy matter to thrash Spain.

The colored people are entitled to recognition in the police court.

BOOKER T. WASHINGTON.

IN DISFAVOR WITH SOUTHERN DEMOCRATS.—HIS APOLOGIES GAIN HIM NOTHING. HIS ADVICE DISCEDITED.

Mr. Booker T. Washington, the noted negro southern apologist and president of the Tuskegee Industrial Institute, is not so popular among southern white people as one would suppose. A school teacher from Chambers, Ala., who has besn a constant visitor at the Tuskegee school, and is now in this city on a visit, says among other things, that the white democrats in whose interest Mr. Washington is always speaking and for whom wrongs against the negro, he is continually apologizing, in addressing the students one time said:

"You must treat white farmers with respect; you must be moral; you must get money and property and then these white farmers will take you into their houses." A deep groan was heard from one of the white farmers in the audience.

A little chap from one of the upper counties arose and said: "Mr. Washington you have all those things, why don't they receive you"?

On another occasion, Mr. Washington and one of his teachers visited a white church, the colored churches were not good enough for them. They would always sit back in the corner or extreme end of the church. They were told by the white sexton, that they must get up and get. This is the story as it was told by a teacher in Alabama to a BEE representative on Wednsday, who is a frequent visitor of the Tuskegee school.

McDEVITT'S NEW PLACE.

This is the case with Mr. H. F. McDevitt, who is well and favorably known in South Washington. He has moved his place of business to 2010 K street northwest near the Market, where he serves from 10:30 a. m. to 1 o'clock p. m., free lunch. Mr. McDevitt has a host of friends who love him and will patronize him because he knows how to treat them. Don't fail to give a call even if you don't want any thing. Mr. McDevitt is a gentleman and knows how to treat his customers. He is a geniel as well as a liberal man and you should not hesitate to give him a call. Try his fine lunch.

CHANGES IN RECORDES'S OFFICE.

Recorder Cheatham has made several transfers and promotions in his office. Mr. Arnett has been made comparer; Dr. Sheppard, made confidential clerk to the Recorder, and Buckhanan appointed to the place held by Mr. Arnett. Several more dicharges will be made shortly.

If Mr. Demas is to be rejected on account of his alleged connection with the Louisiana Lottery, then every politician in the State who has come up for an office may be charged with being connected with the lottery. THE BEE is aware of men now opposing Mr. Demas against whom charges can be made of a similar character.

A TRIBUTE TO THE NATIONAL EDUCATIONAL ASSOCIATION.

The March Number "Book of the Royal Blue," issued by the Passenger Department of the B. & O. R. R. is dedcated to the Teachers of the United States, account of their annual meeting to be held at Washington next July. This issue contains twenty-five superb half-tones from recent photographs of the national Capital, with valuable suggestions to visitors intending to go to Washington. Maine, furnished by the Navy Department and illustrated with official phographs of the ill-fated vessel before she went to Havana, and also the morning after the explosion. The latter protograph was brought by Lieut. Hood of the Maine, the day after the disaster, and it was sent by Admiral Sicard to Secretary Long.

SCHOOL TRUSTEES MEET.

A SCHOOL BOY ASSAULTED BY AN OFFICER.—THE BOARD'S ACTION.—APPOINTMENTS AND PROMOTIONS.

A regular meeting of the board of trustees of the public schools was held at the Franklin building last Tuesday evening, at which were present Messrs. Whelpley, Barnard, Harries, Hazen, Wilson, Spear, Brown, Wright and Richardson, Mrs. Tulloch and Mrs. Terrell.

Notice was recieved from the District Commissioners that the new school building in course of erection on 6th street east had been named the Peabody Annex.

Letters were received from B. H Warner & Co. and W. H. Saunders & Co., complaining of the inadequacy of the school facilities at Petworth, and offering suitable buildings for school purposes. The communication were referred to the committee on school buildings.

At the instance of Mrs. Terrell the board adopted a resolution requesting the District Commissioners to investigate the case of assault on William Gardner, a sixteen-year-old pupil in the Jones school, alleged to have been committed by Officer Gouldman of the second precinct, with a view to the dismissal of the officer in case he shall be shown to be guilty of the offense charged against him.

On motion of Mr. Barnard a committee of three, consisting of Messrs. Barnard, Wright and Spear, was appointed to consider the advisability of arranging a course of free lectures for the benefit of the children of the public schools, to continue until the summer vacation. ## A BEAUTIFUL CANTATA.

The dramatic cantata "Jephthah and his daughter," was very successfully given at the Shiloh Baptist church Friday evening March 4th 1898.

This very pleasing entertainment was gotten up by Mrs. Mollie M. Smith who deserves unlimited praise for her herculean efforts in collecting and keeping together such a splendid array of talent. Mr. Wm. C. Elkins was the musical director and the precise execution of the choruses and solos was due to his excellent interpretation. The principal characters were taken by Mesdames Lula Joy Brooks as "Iphegeni" whose superb soprano showed to good effect in the solo; "Now slowly sinks my setting sun" Mrs. Mollie Smith in the role of Adah rendered her part well, her unique appearance on the stage completely captivating the appreciative audience while leading the maidens in "Tripping where Sunbeams play."

Mr. Emmet C. Jones had the title role "Jephthah" and a better rendition of that part could scarcely be performed and he deserved the great applause he received.

Mr. Elkins as "Prophet" rendered his solo with ease in good voice his make-up of that character making him almost unrecognizable so well was it done.

The piano work of Miss Jeannettta Taylor was par excellent as was the cornet work of Mr. Jacob Felder.

The entire chorus was attired in neatly made gowns and turbans appropriate to ancient time and presented a grand appearance. A large audience was present and no doubt a handsome amount was realized for the church.

A large number of prominent musical persons were noted in the audience.

Mr. Benjamin Washington is a success as director of music at the 2nd Baptist Lyceum.

The following prominent church choirs are making extensive preperations for Easter, Asbury, Metropolitan A M. E,, St. Augustine, 19th Street, Mt. Zion and Zion Baptist.

LYNCH AT HILL'S STABLE DOOR.

Where are the Negroes who yelled in convention,
When good fat offices Hill did mention;
They are picking cotton and plowing corn
And listening for the big dinner horn.
Their hopes are blasted and this they know
And are cursing the very hinges of Hill's stable door.

Hill's followers are much disjointed
For not one of them has he appointed,
He laid them all quickly upon the shelf,
To get a little office for himself,
He crowded the offices on the white trash poor
And left them starving at his stable door.

The Poor white trash he served full well
And told the Negroes to go to——H——
He had used the Negroes in the convention
But to serve them afterward was not his intention,
He did not think he would need them more
Till Lynch took charge of his stable door

Oh! where is Pett bone, the sweet persuader
Who was to have been Postmaster at Grenada,
He tramped the State from end to end
Making many a foe; loosing many a friend;
The fight for delegates now being o're
He is famishing at Hill's stable door.

And where is Geo. Granberry with brothers many
Who followed Hill like old Bill Penny
He played the "promise racket" on him
And filled his cup of hope to the brim.
He then gave the office to the white trash poor
And left Geo. picking cotton at his stable door.

And there is Sam Hurst who gave up his all
To follow at Jim Hill's beck and call,
He turned his best friends into bitter foes
In trying to relelve Jim Hill of his woes,
But he is sick of his "Jinus" and this we know
For he has been starving 12 years at his stable door.

Then there is Randolph as slick as an eel;
As smooth as an apple before it's pelled,
He worked for Hill both night and day
But is now kicked out like old dog tray
The office now, goes to the white trash poor
While Randolph cries "Oh H—" at Hill's stable door.

And there is Lampton, the preacher bold
Who left his business of saving souls,
He worked for Hill to the bitter end
Expecting to get something for his friends
And got what the boy shot at and this he knows
Now Lynch stands smiling at his stable door.

And there is Young at Natchez town
Who like little Cox followed Hill around
They both listened to his stories long
And said "Amen" to the Jim Hill song
But he has left them naked and poor
To weep and wail at his stable door.

When Lynch had busted his boom quite wide
"Oh! "My kingdom for a horse" Hill cried
Then placing his goggles over his eyes,
Said "Oh! boys, let us have a compromise

But pray what has Hill got to compromise?
But a pair of blue goggles and a pair of blac keyes
And a pair of side whiskers both gray and old
And a pair of big feet and a pinched up soul
For the offices are gone and the Negroes are sore
While Lynch is thundeing at his stabe door.

So down goes a statesman sadly bereft
His blue goggles, his side wiskers all's that's left
His name is not on the eternal roll
For the devil would'nt have his witherd soul
He will fool the Negroes; "never more"
While Lynch quarantines that stable door.

Hill rushed to Washington city snugged,
To defeat a poor colored man for a little office at Vicksburg.
Now if he is the great friend of his race
Why did'nt he give a Negro this little place?
And so the little office went to the white trash poor
While Stith and other Negroes weep at his stable door.

Even should McAlister get the little deputyship
There is nothing for Granberry, Randolph, or Stith
And nothing for Montgomery, Broadwaters or Pearce
And nothing for Gilliam, Pettibone or Hurst.
He went squarly back on these good men, sure
And thus inviting Lynch to his stable door.

And now Jimmie, the record is nearly complete
You can gloat over the Negroes whom you've defeated
They are all out of office and out to stay
So long as you have any thing to say
You have given every thing to the white trash poor;
And left the Negroes howling at your stable door

RACE PRIDE.

The Congressional Lyceum was largely attended last Sunday afternoon, Mr. Richard E. Toomey of Greenville, Tenn., read a special written paper, entitled "Race Pride." Incidentally he called attention to the scientific views as to the cause or origin of the various colors and types of the human race and advanced the opinion that the Mosaic or Biblical history of creation was correct, and that man was a special creation of God, and not the result of evolution. At the conclusion of Mr. Toomey's address, Editor W. Calvin Chase, called the president's attention to the fact that Prof. P. H. Murry of St Louis, Mo., one of oldest and ablest colored journalists in the country, was present, and ask unanimous consent that he be heard. There being no objection Prof. Murray came forward and was greeted with applause. He had spoken but a few sentences before all present were convinced that he was thoroughly familiar with biology, authopology, egyptology, archæology and the many other "ologies" of which Mr. Toomey had spoken. Prof. Murray is not only an able editor, but is well versed in phrenology and that at an early day he would favor the lyceum with a lecture on this very important subject. Mr. Toomey's paper was discussed by Messrs. Tyler, Cooper, Stewart, Davis and Miss Nannie Burrows.

Next Sunday at 3:30 p. m. Prof. Hershaw, president of the Bethel Literary and Historical Association will read a paper before the lyceum. Special music by the Junior choir of the 19the Street Baptist church. Prof. James T. Walker, director.

The management of the Columbia takes pleasure in announcing the engagement for the week of March 14, of Madame Janauschek and a company of unusual strength in the new play, "What Dreams May Come."

The fact that Madame Janauschek is the greatest living actress of her type upon the stage today, and that type the highest and most noble manifestation of the players genius, renders her appearance of unusual interest to all lovers of great acting.

"What Dreams May Come" affords Madame Janauschek an opportunity to appear in a singular and striking character, that of the Countess Demitri, a Russian woman who meets her son in London under circumstances which afford many powerful situations. The play is an absolute novelty, and while Madame Janauschek has not for years had a role of greater strength, yet the play moves forward in an atmosphere of youth and sentiment and quiet comedy. The end is happy. The play is the work of Paul Kester who is himself no stranger to washington, having lived four years at Gunston on the Potomac just below the city.

The company which will appear with Madame Janauschek, includes players of such sterling worth as Edmund Collier, Joseph Whiting and Myron Calice.

Maude Banks who has recently done such wonderful work in the Independent Theatre in New York is also in the cast. In John Blair, to whom the part of Roger Hazleton is entrusted, Mme. Janauschek's management believe that they have secured the most able and gifted of all the younger leadiug men. He has but recently quitted Daniel Frohman's forces and next season plays alternate leads with Julia Marlowe. Other members of the company are Misses Washburn, Miss de Wolf, Mr. Holland, Mr. Layman and Mr. Hepworth. Special scenery will be used.

Mr. W. H. H. Heart has been appointed a copyist by Recorder of Deeds Cheatham. Mr. Heart is Professor on Criminal Law, and Domestic Ralations in the Howard University Law School.

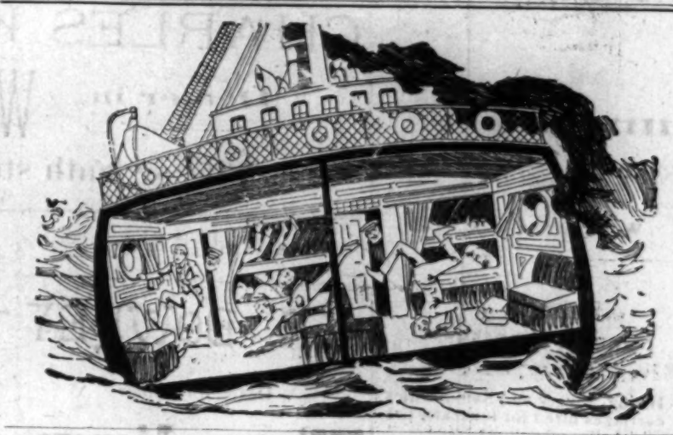
EDWARD KOHNER, Proprietor.



The famous Bros. Byrne will produce their successful spectacular production, the New "8 Bells," at the Grand Opera House, beginning Monday March 14, with usual Matinees. The scenic effects invented by the talented John F. Byrne are very clever and startling,

In the new "Eight Bells" which will be the attraction at the Grand next week, the Bros. Byrne play the parts of students and servants and have all manner of escapades, each succeeding the other in rapid order, and each one more comical than the one preceding it. Mr. John F. Byrne is the inventor and patentee of all of the stage mechanism used in the presentation of this amusing comedy. It is the most novel and intricate used by any road company. The Bros. Byrne stand at the head of their profession in this peculiar line of work and bring a strong company of specialty people with them. Some of the scenes are very notably funny, particularly that with the wild white horse and trick carriage, and the stateroom frolics on board an ocean steamer. The fun is fast and furious, but withal clean and whole some.

Do you want a whiskey that is "the finest" grade and full "proof?" If you do, call at the Bordeaux Wine Co. corner of 14th and T streets, and try their "Special." There are a very few brands sold in Washington that excel t. Mr. Demonet the manager is a gentleman of the "old school," and will tender you such polite attention that you will surely call again.

Stall 71, O street Market.

Dear girls: To whomsoever this may point, don't get offended. I dislike to see so many of you together at public places, during the late hours of the evening, without a gentleman escort. It looks like you are either on the alert for the opposit sex, or gentlemen refuse to seek your company.

Just why people will attend to other people's affairs and let their own go undone, is unexplainable. Such people are called meddlers. There are two kinds of meddlers: One will listen to a conversation that doesent concern him and the other will speak when he is not spoken to.

B. E. He who is without patience will be uneasy and troublesome to all with whom he is connected, and will be more troublesome to himself than any one else. Patience, like a gentle disposition, can be cultivated.

Elsie: Your presumptious manners are not at all ladylike. It is unbecoming for any lady to talk so much about other people's affairs.

Jealousy: You are entirely too narrow minded to succeed. Because you cant do a thing, it is wrong to criticise those who can.

Some people never weep until they see others prosper, and never laugh except they are in the lead. Bellzebub blushes when he sees such angels.

Bessie: It is very erroneous for a lady to address a gentleman in a public gathering by his first name and I am sure no lady would permit a gentleman to address her thus. except they are engaged, and then it should be when they are alone.

Idleness is the cheif author, of mischief. If you would be happy, seek employment.

The person who can find time to trace up a supposed false hood is classed as a mischief maker.

A fine dress in the eyes of some people covers more sins than charity. Many a knave by means of a fine coat and graceful bows has walked into society over an honest farmer or a worthy mechanic.

Etinette: Society that accepts of a person on account of dress or position is more or less, always under suspicion.

Luck lies in labor. He who works is bound to succeed. pleasure blossoms on the tree of labor.

Graduate: I agree with you when you say we all feel the lost of Mrs. trustee Terrell on the Indstrial Committee. Rev. S. N Brown, her successor, is a gentleman of high repute and one you can approach.

Florence. Just why our teachers delay so long in getting on the matrimonial sea, I am unable to state, but I suppose they are not willing to exchange "better for worse". On an average, the women in Washington, especially those who are connected with the schools make better wages han men. I don't blame any woman for not marrying, except her condition can be made better.

You are a silly girl to allow the man to continue postponing your wedding day. If there is to be any putting off it should be done by yourself.

J. C: Too much confidence in a person sometimes is as bad as not enough Men are strange creatures. They seldom appreciate those that seek them or too much anxiety on the part of a girl.

Esther: You and your betrothed having the same middle name could hardly make a difference. Remember the rhyme reads: To change the name and not the letter, marry for worse and not the better."

E. M. People who desire more to seem good than to be so are hypocrites. The person who does one or two good deeds and thinks all his sins therewith are coverd up is mistaken.

Lily: Manners are different but true politeness is always the same.

Hint: A peson never appears so ridiculous by the qualities he has, as by those he affects to have.

It is rumored that shirt waists and linen skirts will be in vogue though the summer months.

Essie: Ladies cloth is the worse material that one can buy for every day use. Every thing is inclined to stick to it hence it never looks bright.

Cora: You should not wear your bycicyle boots with a long dress as it is apt to give you a cold.

A person who tells an untruth for a cause does more injury to himself than any one else.

Lelia: No honest man will try to court two girls at once. You should make him know his place.

Ella: You misunderstood me. All women should marry. I don't believe God intended any one of us to be old maids. In this progressive age, women are not considered on the old maid's list until they enter into the forties. A man is quite young at forty five.

Inquirer. Yes, Hairoilene rubbed well into the roots of the hair will thicken it. It also arrests dandruff and stops the hair from falling out. You will find advertisement in another Column.

A quiet wedding is the most appropiate, when your means are small. I don't approve of large weddings merely forthe sake of receiving presents. I smuch more expensive to give such a wedding than the presents you receiveare worth.
